DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Two of the greatest factors in life today, heredity and environment, have been used by Douglas Fairbanks in supplying the theme for his third United Artists corporation production, "The Mollycoddle," which will be the feature attraction at the Butler theatre today.

In "The Mollycoddle," Douglas Fairbanks, as Richard Marshall V., is an offspring of many generations of fearless fighters. His ancestors fought all the way through the revolution; all across the plains and all down the coast of the western country. They were not dainty or even civilized in their undertakings and it mattered little just how they gained a joint, just so long as it was gained quickly.

In the title role, Fairbanks is transplanted in England at an early stage. He arrives at his youth through the so-called hothouse cultivation with the result that his early manhood found him gentle in manner, quiet of voice, fastidious in dress and addicted to such affectations as monocle, perfume and cigarette holders.

There is no question but that he went very well with his environment; but everything about him grated on the red-blooded Americans with whom he came in contact, for their knowledge of English men had been gained from fiction. He was considered just a plain "Mollycoddle."

But something happens in his life and he gets back to America. A girl is the cause and for her he tries to crack the shell of his English exterior. He is not much of a success at the start for he had been too thoroughly addled with environment.

Conditions were different then. Many obstacles crossed his path and he was called upon in numerous emergencies. Then his ancestry took hold. He forged to the front and scouted as his plainsman grandfather might have scouted; stood up under fire as his revolutionary grandfather must have; rescued beauty in distress as his cavalier father surely did and fought as all four of his grandfathers would have if rolled into one.

Wallace Beery as the "villain" has considerable to do with developing the ancestry of "The Mollycoddle" over his environment, and Ruth Renick, as the pretty girl who starts the turning point of it all, is responsible for many of the thrilling situations.

Tomorrow, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," a thrilling story of the Canadian northwest.

PERSONAL

C. E. HART, of Belmont, is spending a few days in Tonopah.

GEORGE H. MARSH, of Reno, is Tonopah visitor.

GEORGE W. QUIGLEY, the mining man, was an arrival from Reno yesterday.

H. E. BURCH and wife, of Battle Mountain, are registered at the Mizpah.

GEORGE H. MARSH, of Reno, was an arrival on this morning's train.

W. J. McKEOUGH, the deputy revenue collector, was called to Reno this morning.

TOM FLYNN, manager of the local office of Smith & Amann, brokers, was a passenger today for Reno.

MISS HATTIE McLEOD, who has been visiting her sister Miss May McLeod, left for her home at Milletts this morning. During the session of the legislature Miss McLeod was an attaché of the state engineer's office.

FRANK BROTHERTON, the pioneer merchant of Belmont, who has been an inmate of the Mine Operators' hospital for the past three weeks, is regaining his health. He was down town yesterday and today.

ROBERT POHL, assemblyman from Lander county, is in Tonopah visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Haynes, and her husband. Mr. Pohl is one of those upright assemblymen who voted to remove Judge Langan. He did his honest duty to the people of Nevada.

JAMES WOOD and bride, nee Gendron, were arrivals from the coast and Reno this morning. The newlyweds will remain in Tonopah a few days before going to their home in Smoky Valley, where they will remain for the spring and summer months. The happy couple are today being showered with congratulations by their many friends in Tonopah.

DOUBLE FEES OF STATE SECRETARY

An increase in the fees of the secretary of state to practically double the former charges will bring in approximately twice the former revenue to the state from this source. It is believed by Secretary of State Brodigan and Deputy Ralph Paul Burris. As the secretary's office returns annually is the largest income to this state, it is expected that figures in the future will almost double those of the past. Although it is expected that some corporations may not be organized because of the higher fee and that some others will be incorporated in other states, the returns will show a substantial increase.

The new schedule of fees went into effect March 23 after Governor Boyle had signed the bill passed in the legislature to provide for the higher rates. The new charges are as follows:

For filing articles of incorporation, 20 cents for each $1000 of capital stock, with a minimum charge of $50.

For consolidation and merger of corporations, 20 cents for each $1000 beyond the authorized capital stock of the corporation merged or consolidated, with a minimum of $20.

For extension or renewal of corporate existence, one-half the fee required for original certificate of the articles.

For dissolution of a corporation, $20.

For filing amended articles, $20, except amendments increasing capital stock.

For filing list of officers, directors and resident agent, $2.

For filing notice of removal of office other than by amendment, $2.

For certifying to a copy of articles of incorporation, $10.

For certifying to copy of amended articles of incorporation, $10.

For certifying to a copy of the Nevada general corporation act, $10.

For all other certificates, $10.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To further reduce the cost of living, we will open a Groceteria on the second floor to our store April 1, 1921. The same high standard lines of Groceries which we have always carried will be placed on display and all canned goods sold at a reduction of from two to five cents a can, this being made possible by the fact that there will be no clerks. The Groceries will be placed on convenient counters and shelves and plainly marked so that you may pick out your wants and pay the cashier as you leave. This plan has met with great success in many towns on the coast, and with the co-operation of our customers, we will be able to reduce the cost of living at least ten per cent further in this department. Positively no phone orders or deliveries made from this department.

WATCH THIS SPACE FOR REDUCED PRICES

To our customers who desire service we will make two deliveries a day from our store on the first floor. All orders received by 9:00 A. M. will be delivered at noon. All orders received by 3:00 P. M. will be delivered by 6:00 P. M.

Our present prices will not be raised and there will be no charge for deliveries. Phone your orders.

MINE WORKERS' MERCANTILE

Yours for
QUALITY — SERVICE — PRICE

Groceteria Will Open April 1

The management of the Mine Workers' Mercantile company is ever alert for any improvement that will lessen the burden or lower the cost of goods to all customers. It is the aim of the directors of the corporation to sell goods at cost, or so near cost that you might just as well call it cost. By doing this, the laboring class is satisfied that it is not being gouged and that friendly conditions exist between employer and employee. The Mine Workers' Mercantile company will on April 1 open its groceteria on the second floor of the store building. All goods in this department will be marked plainly and will be at least a 10 per cent reduction. Each customer waits upon himself or herself and the cashier does the rest. This is a new system in Tonopah, and is put in operation to see if it will work out and is appreciated by the buying public. The company will also install a free delivery from the main store on April 1. There will be two deliveries daily from the main grocery and meat departments. All goods ordered before 9 a. m. will be delivered by noon. Goods ordered up to 3 p. m. will be at your house before 6 p. m.
